SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Nov. 26.—The week has been dominated by Thanksgiving parties of various descriptions, dinners predominating. On Wednesday evening, before the Mounted Service hop, Capt. and Mrs. Roger Mason gave a dinner for 10, entertaining for Lieut. and Mrs. Percy Deshon, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Vandever, Miss Norma Mason, Mrs. G. O. Ellis and Lieut. Frederick Stewart and Cliff Andrus.

Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Harbold entertained delightfully on Friday evening before the hop in the 25th Infantry Club in honor of Mrs. Ethel Richardson, house-guest of Lieut. and Mrs. George Gay. The affair took the form of a buffet supper, which was served in the attractive living rooms, which were decorated for the occasion with vases of yellow chrysanthemums and ferns. Mrs. Richardson, as guest of honor, was presented with a corsage bouquet of violets and maidenhair fern. The party, which later attended the hop, included Maj. and Mrs. Frank Albright, Mrs. Ethel Richardson, Lieut. and Mrs. George Gay, Lieut. and Mrs. Walter Frank, Lieut. and Mrs. Carl Ballinger, Lieut. and Mrs. Richard Taylor, Misses Margaret Church and Dorothy Forsyth, Dr. and Mrs. Cummings, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Rich, Lieut. and Mrs. Louie Beard, Ivens Jones, Howard Milligan, Eugene Robinson, Capt. James Loud and Mr. Eames from Wahiawa.

Lieut. and Mrs. George Gay gave a dinner on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Ethel Richardson. Twelve guests were seated about the large, round table, which was attractively decorated with yellow and white; a large basket filled with graceful Shasta daisies and ferns made an effective centerpiece, the yellow tints of which were reflected in the yellow silk candle shades. The party included the Misses Edith Patton and Margaret Church, Mrs. Richardson, Capt. S. S. Creighton, Capt. Leo Mudd, Capt. George de Grasse Catlin, Mr. Eames from Wahiawa, Lieut. Harold Huntley and Frank Schneider and Lieut. and Mrs. Gay.

Capt. and Mrs. John Jordan gave an attractive dinner for 10 on Thursday evening, the color note being red. A novel and effective scheme of decoration was used in the shape of a basket, a large Japanese parasol was inverted and suspended over the center of the table; from this hung tiny Japanese lanterns. Under the parasol on the table stood a large vase of red African daisies and ferns, while grouped around this on the cloth were little turkey figures. Places were set for Capt. and Mrs. Clyde B. Crusan, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles F. Rice, Lieut. and Mrs. Fred Pitts, Lieut. Charles Hankhead and Frank Riley and the hosts.

Mrs. Edwin Winans will be the guest for the coming week of Mrs. William Gardenhire, who entertained in her honor at bridge on Saturday evening. Those invited to meet her were Capt. and Mrs. Chalmers Hall, Capt. and Mrs. John Fair, Capt. and Mrs. James Fechet, Lieut. and Mrs. Jerome Pillow, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Naylor, Lieut. and Mrs. Seth Cook and Capt. and Mrs. Clarence R. Day. A delicious supper was served at the conclusion of the evening.

Mrs. John P. Wisser was hostess for 10 ladies of the garrison on Tuesday at luncheon. The table had for decorations a number of small vases filled with white flowers and ferns, the cool white and green making a very dainty effect. Seated about the long table were Mesdames Lewis Borley, J. B. Pillow, W. W. Heatherington, Mrs. Jerome Pillow, John Hunt, Walter Short, Englebert Owenshine, George Bailey, Vernon Caldwell and the hostess.

Lieut. and Mrs. Franklin Rice were hosts at dinner on Thanksgiving Day, when they entertained for 10. Yellow and white chrysanthemums were used in the effective centerpiece, their delicate tints reflected in the shaded candelabra. The party included Dr. and Mrs. Albert White, Lieut. and Mrs. John Hinemon, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Vandever, Lieut. Otis Snidder and Gustav Gonser and Lieut. and Mrs. Rice.

were dinner hosts on Wednesday, when they entertained for Capt. and Mrs. James Fechet, Capt. and Mrs. Clarence Day, Capt. and Mrs. George Kumpe and Dr. and Mrs. George Calender. The place favors in honor of the season were tiny little boxes in the form of turkeys containing candies. The decorations echoed the autumn color of Thanksgiving.

On Monday evening Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Janda gave a three-table bridge, entertaining for Mrs. Edward Carey, Misses Elizabeth Pattison and Edith Patton, Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas Lowe, Lieut. and Mrs. Byard Sneed, Lieut. Charles Bankhead, Frank Riley and Edward Rose. A very jolly evening was spent with the always fascinating game, which was later followed by a delicious supper.

Lieut. and Mrs. Louis H. McKinlay gave a dinner on Tuesday for eight. Pink was chosen as the color note for this affair and was effectively carried out in the flowers of the centerpiece, which were shaggy asters gracefully arranged, and in the silk shades on the candles. The guests were Capt. and Mrs. Clarence R. Day, Capt. and Mrs. William Browning and Capt. and Mrs. Arthur Cassels.

Mrs. Ethel Richardson was the guest of honor at the three-table bridge party given by Mrs. Pelham D. Glasford on Friday afternoon. Invited to meet her were Mesdames Roger Mason, G. O. Ellis, Percy Deshon, Americus Mitchell, John Boniface, John O'Shea, Miss Sue Holcomb, Mesdames McKinlay, Clarence Day, S. Martin, Benjamin Edgar and George Gay.

Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Donaldson were hosts at a very delightful Thanksgiving dinner on Thursday, when their guests were Capt. and Mrs. Lucius Holbrook and their three sons and Lieut. and Mrs. William Gardenhire and son. The tables were decorated in yellow and white, and presented a charmingly hospitable aspect.

Col. and the Misses McMahon entertained on Wednesday evening at dinner Capt. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Capt. and Mrs. Arthur Cassels and Capt. John Kilbreth. Red African daisies were used as decorations on the daintily appointed table.

Capt. and Mrs. Harry Knight gave a lovely dinner on Thursday, their decorations being American beauty roses, with the dainty appointments echoing the rose pink note. The guests were Lieut. James Ulio, John Simons, Robert Snow and Dr. Johnson.

On Thursday evening Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carey had as guests for Thanksgiving dinner Maj. Charles Tayman, Maj. Hartnet and Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Everett.

Lieut. and Mrs. Truby Martin gave a dinner on Thanksgiving Day for Col. John McMahon, the Misses Carrie and Esther McMahon, Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Janda.

SOCIETY AT COAST ARTILLERY POSTS

Capt. and Mrs. George Taylor of Fort Kamehameha entertained recently with a swimming party and tea in honor of the young ladies from Pearl Harbor navy yard. After a refreshing swim, tea was enjoyed in the living-room. Mrs. Clifford Jones poured and the teatable, with its yellow silk shaded candles in Canton candlesticks, was effective in its appointment of Canton china and copper. Tea was poured for Miss Geraldine Boush, Miss Gray, Miss McKensie, Miss Katherine Schmidt, Lieut. Fordyce Perego, Robert Guthrie, Coleman Jenkins, Dr. Reese, Capt. and Mrs. Clifford Jones and Capt. and Mrs. George Taylor.

The Fort Ruger Bridge Club met Saturday evening with Capt. and Mrs. Carr Waller. At the close of the evening's play a delicious supper of chicken salad, sandwiches and iced drinks was served. The members present were Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Willmot Ellis, Maj. and Mrs. Charles Ragan, Capt. and Mrs. Frederick Philster, Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Applin, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Clark, Jr., and Capt. and Mrs. Carr Waller. The club entertained as its guests Capt. and Mrs. Norris Stanton, Lieut. and Mrs. Edwin J. O'Hara and Mrs. Arthur Davidson.

Capt. and Mrs. Malcolm Andrus were host and hostess at dinner Thursday evening. Their guests were Lieut. and Mrs. Frederick Garcin, Lieut. Fordyce Perego and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weston. Small boxes in the shape of turkeys filled with candies stood at the places and beside each was a small basket of nuts fastened with festoons of yellow ribbons to a large basket in the center of the table, which held yellow and white chrysanthemums.

One of the most enjoyable dinners was that presided over by Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Applin at Heinie's Tavern Wednesday evening. The table, with its red shaded lights and red flowers, was further adorned by appropriate Hawaiian cards, which marked places for Maj. and Mrs. Charles Ragan, Capt. and Mrs. Frederick Philster, Capt. Henry Hatch, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Loomis and Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Applin.

The Fort Kamehameha sewing club enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Joseph Douglas Tuesday afternoon. Charlie Chaplin One-Step Seen in Honolulu. Charlie Chaplin, the film comedian, who is a favorite with every movie fan, has been imitated by almost everyone, and the latest dancing step favored by society is the Charlie Chaplin walk. To describe it would be impossible, but while it has its comical features, it is pretty when danced well.

The other evening Mrs. U. S. Grant, Jr., one of the winter visitors in Honolulu was seen "doing the Chaplin" and right away everyone else wanted to learn it. Mrs. Grant's dancing is equal to that of any professional.

BLOOD TEST URGED BEFORE ISSUING OF MARRIAGE LICENSE

DALLAS, Texas.—Blood tests taken before the issuance of marriage licenses were advocated by Dr. Lloyd Thompson of Hot Springs at the convention of the Southern Medical congress. Dr. P. N. Whitfield of Florence, Miss., urged the issuance of public health bulletins on the subject, declaring girls who read them would not be in a hurry to marry without investigation of their suitors.

"Sanitary Preparedness" was the text of Surgeon-General Blue's address.
